Completion of the student application form. 2.2. This form has to be sent back to HfG by clicking on submit or via email to: loris@hfg-offenbach.de. 3. Students receive an email that includes an upload link for the following application documents: letter of motivation, CV, copy of passport, copy of university entrance qualification (such as a-level, high school diploma...), transcript of records and portfolio. Selection of exchange students is made mainly on a portfolio basis. There is no automatic acceptance of nominated students. Admission notice will be issued in July/January.
ORIENTATION WEEK (O-WEEK)	The International Office organises various events shortly before and after the beginning of the semester: a guided tour through Offenbach and the campus, a get together and a meeting with the professors (to talk about the choice of courses). Design students have to attend a workshop. Details will be sent to student after admission notice. All meetings are compulsory!
LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS FOR EXCHANGE STUDENTS	We expect a good command of English that enables incoming students to communicate well at an academic level. We also recommend acquiring basic knowledge of the German language as it is the primarily language of instruction.

HEALTH INSURANCE	Students are obliged to have a sufficient statutory health insurance valid in Germany during their stay as exchange students! Students from EU countries are usually covered under their national health insurance and should bring their EHIC health insurance card to the Registrar's Office. Students without a valid health insurance need to take out a general health insurance policy from a German insurance company prior to enrolment. Students are notable to enrol at the university without proof of health insurance valid for the period of the stay at HfG!
ACCOMMODATION	We have a limited number of rooms reserved in the student residences of Frankfurt. Students can apply for these rooms at HfG. Please contact Ms. Loris (loris@hfg-offenbach.de) for more information.
FEES	Semester fees are no tuition fees, but a contribution to facilities you will be using as a student, e.g. library, canteen, student union, sports program, and your ticket for public transportation.
AVERAGE LIVING EXPENSES	Usually, a student needs around 700€ per month, depending on the personal needs and expenses for a flat. A room in a shared flat costs around 250-400€ and is very common for students in Germany. Non-EU students have to pay for the statutory health insurance, which costs about 80€ per month. There are no costs for public transport in the Rhein/Main Region since the semester ticket is already included in the social fees.
OPENING A BANK ACCOUNT IN GERMANY	Having a bank account in Germany is important especially for Non-EU Citizens. With a German bank account, you can withdraw money free of charge from cash machines in Germany, make payments electronically, and set up "standing orders" for regular payments – like rent, health insurance or telephone bills. If you get a scholarship from HfG, you will need a current account to receive your pay. There are numerous commercial and savings banks which operate branches in cities throughout Germany. There are also a number of online banks which offer the entire range of services via the Internet. When opening a bank account you should make sure that the bank is a national or direct bank. To open an account, you are normally asked to present the following documents: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Passport or personal identification card, ○ Student ID or certificate of enrolment of the German university

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Confirmation of registration from the Resident Registration Office or Alien Registration Office Take these documents with you to a bank branch of your choice and ask to open a current account (Girokonto). The employees at the bank will help you.
EXTENSION	Every student who would like to extend the stay at HfG will need a confirmation by the International Office at the home university. Also, the International Office at HfG needs a confirmation by the supervising professor at HfG, that he/she will mentor the student for one more semester. Please send these two confirmations by e-mail to Ms. Loris: loris@hfg-offenbach.de and Mrs Schulz: schulz@hfg-offenbach.de.
